Members of the Faculty and Students of the Negev:

A decision has been made by the military command and the students' body that learning will be canceled for the day on November 13, 2018.

The evaluation in which the student body and the students of the University of Ben-Gurion (in both campuses: Beer-Sheva and Beer-Sheva) have decided not to carry out learning (including exams and tests),

In the event that the situation changes, further information will be sent by email, on the website, and through various other communication channels.

Every day between the hours of 19:00-18:00, an update will be sent on the day to follow.

The work will continue as usual.

The security department requests that the students and employees be aware of the following procedure during a red alert:

In the event of an alert, in 60 seconds, you must enter the closest protected area or the following places:

1. To remain indoors—choose a protected room according to the following:
   a) The director's office (protected room on the ground floor) — close all windows and doors.
   b) Inside the building:
   1) If possible, go to the closest building and follow the instructions given by the building.
   2) Open the windows of the room.
   3) A room with a minimum of windows, without a wall facing west and between two solid ceilings.
   4) A room with two solid ceilings, closed entirely.

2. To remain outdoors
   1) If possible, go to a built area and go in the closest building and follow the instructions given by the building.
   2) In an open area without a building:
   - Use the conditions of the area, lie down on the floor and use your hands to protect your head.

3. For drivers
   1) If possible, stop on the side of the road, get off the car and enter the closest building or shelter. If it is not possible to enter the building or shelter due to the alert, stop on the side of the road, get off the car and lie down on the ground.

4. Exit policy:
   1) After the event, you may leave the protected area within 10 minutes if no other instructions are given.
   2) There is an order to avoid the areas of rocket hits, to stay away from undefined objects, exposed wires and electric poles in such areas.

Dr. Nir Lapid, Director of Operations and Security.

To University Staff and Students,

Re: No Classes at Ben Gurion University on Tuesday, November 13, 2018

In consultation with the Home Front Command, it was decided that there will be no classes as well as tests at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev (on Beer-Sheva campuses only).

Students and Staff are requested to follow instructions dispatched by mail, App and on the homepage of the BGU website about studies and other guidelines.

On a Daily basis between 6 p.m to 7 p.m we will release an update for the next day.

All employees are requested to come to work as usual.

The University Security Department seeks to refresh to the staff and students, the instructions how to behave when a siren sounds:

When a siren sounds, you are requested, within 60 seconds, to enter the protected area closest to you or to one of the following areas:

1. To those in a building - you should choose protection as follows:
   a) Enter the protected space on the same floor (level) and close a steel window and door.
   b) Internal area (such as a corridor) that is without windows and without a west-facing exterior, under two thick beams.
   c) In stairwells with no west-facing wall.
   d) A room with a minimum number of windows with no west-facing wall.

   In all cases, sit on the floor (below the windowsill level) and lean against an interior wall.

   Do not sit in front of windows
2. To those not in a building
   a) In a built-up area – enter the nearest building and act according to the instructions for persons taking shelter indoors.
   b) In an exposed area - lie on the ground face-down and cover your head with your hands.

3. To those travelling in a car
   a) If possible, stop by the side of the road, leave the vehicle and enter the nearest building or cover. If you are unable to reach a building or shelter within the given period of time, lie on the ground face-down and cover your head with your hands.

4. Following the event
   a) After 10 minutes, you may leave the protected area, unless otherwise is instructed.
   b) Stay clear of unidentified objects. Should you see a rocket lying on the ground, prevent gathering of bystanders and inform the University Security Department on 08-6461555/888/444
