ISRAEL: A CASE STUDY
The Jewish State through the Prism of the Social Sciences and the Humanities

International Conference on the Occasion of Israel’s 70th Anniversary

14-16.05.18

Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Sede Boqer Campus

The Center for Israel Studies at the Ben-Gurion Research Institute for the Study of Israel and Zionism, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev (Sede Boqer Campus), invites researchers to participate in a research conference on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the establishment of the State of Israel.

To be discussed at the conference are political society in Israel and the challenges of Israel’s seven decades and its eighth decade from general analytical and theoretical points of view in the disciplines of the social sciences and the humanities. The overarching assumption in the discussions is that Israeli society offers a valuable case study for theoretical or comparative discussion.

Researchers are invited to submit proposals on topics related to migration, nation-building, social stratification, religion and state, nationhood and democracy, homeland and diaspora, army and society, war and peace, social groups and multiculturalism, law and politics, and leadership.

A limited number of subventions for airfare to and from Israel will be available for researchers who lack sources of funding.

The deadline for submission of proposals (up to 300 words) is January 15, 2018.

Email address for submission of proposals and requests for further details: bgucis70@gmail.com

The conference will be held in English