

Nomadic People in Desert Regions: Rethinking Citizenship in the 21st Century from the Perspective of Marginalized Nomadic Peoples

Date: Thursday, November 15, 10:40-12:10

Location: Hydrology Seminar Room

Participants:

Alex Koensler, "The politics of claims: forms of mobilization for Arab-Bedouin rights and citizenship in Israel"

Paras Ram Garasiya, "Shifting sands -- lives and vulnerabilities of Banjaras, a nomadic tribe from the deserts of Rajasthan, India"

Laura Torres, "Common use of natural resources, appropriation of territory and desertification: A case study with post-nomadic groups in Mendoza, Argentina"

Ceng Sagnic, "From mountain Turks to loyal Kurds: Analysis of the changing concept of citizenship in Turkey"

Discussant, after talks: Prof. Emanuel Marx