

Oded Ravid

Oded Ravid gained his BA and MA degrees in economics, and currently he is a PhD student at the department of economics whose research proposal won a competitive Scholarship prize from the Council of Higher Education. Oded worked for two years at the Budget Division department at the Israel Ministry of Finance in Jerusalem and was responsible for managing and planning the national transportation budget.