Dorit Efrat Treister is a lecturer in the Department of management at Guilford Glazer Faculty of Business and Management, BGU. Her main research fields are:
1) Aggression in Organizations: the antecedents of aggression in customer service organizations, organizational management focused on moderating aggression in organizations.
2) Anger - Antecedents of anger, inter and intra-personal effects of anger, effects on creativity and problem solving abilities.
3) Cross-Cultural Management - Cultural sensitivity and accessibility, cross cultural variations in social perception.
4) Time Perception - Antecedents of time perception, queue management.