CONTENTS

Pnina Motzafi-Haller and Sarab Abu-Rabia-Queder
Introduction: Gendering development, developing gender: The politics of contemporary gendered analysis of development 1

Masooda Bano
Empowering women: More than one way? 5

Kimberly Hart
Conflicts and conundrums in a women’s cooperative in western Turkey 25

Esther Hertzog
Who needs literacy programs for women in rural Nepal? 43

Ronnie Halevy
Looking ahead: Educated Bedouin women redefining identity and belonging 73

Iris Levin and Rachel Kallus
Housing and change: Women and progress in Givat Faradis 95

Rosalind Fredericks
Wearing the pants: The gendered politics of trashwork in Senegal’s capital city 121

C. X. George Wei and Yunyu Wang
From cultural nationalism to transnational and personal arts: The role of dancers and women in the reconstruction of the Taiwanese identity 145

Anne Coles
Domestic water provision and gender roles in drylands 177

Voices from the field

Sarab Abu-Rabia-Queder
Cultural and gender-sensitive community development: Interview of Amal Elsana Alhjooj, director of AJEEC 195
Mirit Sidi
The Women’s Courtyard: A critical feminist practice for work with young women in Jaffa

Book reviews

Shani Bar-On
Deborah Bernstein, Women on the Margins: Gender and Nationalism in Mandate Tel Aviv

Ibtisam Ibrahim
Shirin M. Rai, Gender and the Political Economy of Development: Essays in Hope and Despair

Catherine Lloyd
Lyla Mehta, Displaced by Development: Confronting Marginalization and Gender Injustice

On the contributors