

August, 2014

Curriculum Vitae

Noa Levy

Institutional address

The Tamar Golan Africa Centre
Ben Gurion University
Beer Sheva, 84105, Israel
Noa2@post.bgu.ac.il

Home address

Hashalom, 20/gimel 1
Beer Sheva, Israel
972-54-7840775

Education

2006-10 Hebrew University of Jerusalem

B.A in Communication & General and Comparative Literature (Double Major)

2012- Ben Gurion University of the Negev

M.A in the department of Politics and Government with collaboration of the Tamar Golan Africa Centre, Supervised by Dr. Lynn Schler. Current research: Independent Child Migration in Southern Africa.

Academic Work Experience

2013- Ben Gurion University of the Negev

- Lecturer & Supervisor of political internship program "Amitei Everett" in collaboration of the Department of Politics and Government and Shatil (2013-14)
- Research Assistant in the Center for the Study of Conversion and Inter-Religious Encounters, Supervised by Dr. Ayelet Harel Shalev (2014)
- Teaching Assistant in the Inter-University Program for African Studies, "Financial Development in Africa " Lecturer: Dr. Reut Barak-Weekes (2014)
- Tutor in the Department of Politics and Government, "Introduction of politics and Government", Lecturer: Dr. Ayelet Harel Shalev (2013)
- Tutor in the Department of Politics and Government, "The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict: a multi-disciplinary approach", Lecturer: Mr. Moriel Ram (2013)

Scholarships, Research Grants & Awards

- The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Ben Gurion University, The department of Political Science, MA scholarship (2014).

- The Tamar Golan Africa Centre in Ben Gurion University, Research Grant (2014).
- The Israeli National Authority for Ladino and its Culture, Award for winning B.A paper in the course "Spanish-Jewish Literature", Lecturer Dr. Michal Held:
" Golgotha by Shmuel Refael, In the search of acceptance" (2010).

Conferences & Presentations

- "Independent Child Migration in Southern Africa" in the Tamar Golan Africa Centre conference, "The Child in Africa", May 12th, 2014.
- "Independent Child Migration and International Law in Africa" in the Israel Political Science Association conference, "Political Culture and Democracy", May 9th, 2014.

Periods of Academic Research Outside Israel

- 2014 – May Harare, Zimbabwe

Relevant Professional Experience

2011-2012 Vice Principle in Nitzana Boarding School for Unaccompanied Asylum Seekers

Language Information

Hebrew - Native

English - Fluent

French - Intermediate