

The Distinguished Visitors Program, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences; the Conflict Management and Resolution Program; and the Department of Politics and Government, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev will host PROFESSOR PAUL BRASS (university of Washington) on Ben-Gurion campus.

Paul R. Brass is Professor (Emeritus) of Political Science and International Studies at the University of Washington, Seattle. He has published numerous books and articles on comparative and South Asian politics, ethnic politics, and collective violence.

You are cordially invited to his talk:

CRIMINALIZATION OF POLITICS IN INDIA – THE CASE OF UTTAR PRADESH

Greetings: Prof. David Newman, Dean, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Chair and discussant: Dr. Ayelet Harel-Shalev, The Conflict Management and Resolution Program; and the Department of Politics and Government

March 19th, 2014, Wednesday 14:00-16:00, Oren Conference Hall (knasim Alef Hall)

Please RSVP – Ms. Ifat Abraham – Conflict Management and Resolution Program Administrator, ifat@bgu.ac.il

For more details, contact Dr. Ayelet Harel-Shalev ayeletsh@post.bgu.ac.il

Light refreshments will be served