

ETHICS IN CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY

Fall 2016

Professor Joshua D. Lipsitz

Monday 16:0 to 18:00

Building 98 Seminar Room

Resources: CITI online GCP course- (Ethics in PSYCHOLOGICAL RESEARCH research with human subjects)
Must complete CITI course prior to first of semester class.

Text: Pope, K. & Valasquez, M.J.T. (2015). Ethics in counseling and psychotherapy.

American Psychological Association Ethical Principles for Psychologists.

Requirements. Pair presentations on ethics topic.

Topics that will be covered include:

Informed consent therapy and evaluation.

Patient's rights

Competence and malpractice.

Confidentiality and privileged communication

Dual Relationships

Cultural sensitivity and work with minorities

Sexual attraction, touch, and sexual relationships

Putting patient's needs first

Death and suicidality

Torture and military