

Isolation due to corona:

The student confirms that he knows that it is not possible to be in isolation within the dormitories, given the shared services in a residential apartment for several tenants.

Therefore, the student confirms as follows :

- (1) In case of preventive isolation: he will immediately notify the university of the isolation, and will act in accordance with the university instructions, including an order for immediate move to another room.
- (2) In case of isolation due to Corona virus infection: he will immediately notify the university of the isolation, and he will not be able to stay in the dormitories, and will leave the dormitory immediately, on his own and at his own expense, to a corona motel, or any other place which he will locate, where he will be able to meet the conditions of isolation.

For a period during which the student was in isolation outside the dormitories, the student will not be charged accommodation fees. a student who has been in such isolation will present to the university a certificate from the Ministry of Health for staying in isolation and will receive a refund from the university in the amount of the accommodation fee for the days he was in isolation outside the dormitories.

Presenting a valid health insurance by the student, which includes coverage for Corona, is a condition for signing the agreement. At any time during the term of this agreement, the student will have such valid insurance, and he will present it to the university upon request.

Violation of this section is a fundamental violation of the agreement, it may endanger other students residing in the dormitories, and it will provide the university, in addition to any other remedy, with the right to immediately terminate the agreement.
