F Information for the Insurance Applicant

1. The maximum period for the supplemental coverage for worsening of a preexisting medical condition for an Insured up to age of 60 is 90 days ("Supplement for Worsening"). Therefore, a supplement for worsening purchased will be in effect up to the said maximum period, including the case of extension of the Policy or purchase of supplemental insurance for worsening within the maximum period in the Policy. If at the time of extension, the maximum period of the supplement for worsening has passed - there will be no coverage for worsening during the period of extension of the Policy.
2. The insurance policy does not cover medical expenses abroad that arise from anything associated with and/or arising from pregnancy, including pregnancy known of after joining the insurance and prior to the trip and the Insured did not update the Insurer of it, unless the Insured purchased, for additional insurance fees, supplemental coverage for pregnancy.
3. If you chose to remove the coverage for search and rescue in the Basic Policy - the Basic Policy will not include this coverage.
4. If you chose to remove the coverage for third-party liability in the Basic Policy - the Basic Policy will not include this coverage.
5. Insofar that you asked to purchase coverages in addition to the Basic Policy, you may cancel each of the coverages at any time without the cancellation being contingent up cancellation of one or more of the other coverages you purchased together with the Basic Policy, and without cancellation of the coverage causing cancellation of a discount on the Basic Policy or on another coverage. This is with the exception of cancellation of a reduced price provided due to purchase of several different coverages, which were priced together in advance. In the case of cancellation of the Basic Policy, the additional coverages that accompanied the Basic Policy will also be cancelled.
