Title of thesis

The Aranne Library (henceforth: the Library) at the Ben-Gurion University of the Negev (henceforth: BGU) serves as the repository for the Masters and Ph. D. theses submitted to all the University's faculties and schools.

Please note: granting access to the digital copy of the thesis could hinder the ability to register a patent etc. based on the thesis.

The depositing of a second degree thesis (henceforth: the work) is done in accordance with the following prerequisites:

1. The author must submit 1 digital copy transferred in PDF format of the work (to insure that the text is not altered in any way), intended for the Aranne Library, via the Faculty along with this "deposit form," filled out, signed and digitized.
2. A dissertation without a publication permission will be stored in the library server.
3. The Library may allow its registered readership access to a digital copy of the work, in accordance with the conditions, approved as follows by the author and advisors:

The author's permission

Please circle your choice (One only):

I hereby grant access to the digital copy to the following groups, as per the timetable below:

- Only the BGU readership: immediately / after 1 year / 2 years / 3 years.
- All Internet users: immediately / after 1 year / 2 years / 3 years;

If you are not interested to grant public access to your work please circle:

- I do not grant access to the digital copy at all.

Author's sworn statement:

I hereby deposit in the Library 1 digital copy, and authorize the Library to use it for the purposes detailed in this document.

I hereby swear that the copy I have deposited is identical to the copy officially approved by the Judging Committee.

I hereby swear that I have abided by all the copyright laws regarding all the sources I have cited in my work.

When permission has been granted for the digital display to all internet users, a digital copy is also transferred to the National Library of Israel (in accordance with the "Law of Deposition"). The National Library will then have the right to grant access to the digital copy on its Internet website.
