and bestows upon her

The Ben-Gurion Negev Award

In acknowledgement of an exceptional artist who imbues each and every sculpture, vessel and wall relief that emerges from beneath her hands with unique qualities; in honor of a talented sculptor whose works meld primal scenes of the Negev with human experience, whose inspiration, drawn from its soil, is reflected in all her creations and whose works are displayed in exhibitions in Israel and abroad; in recognition of her unceasing and fruitful efforts to establish the Artists’ House in the Negev in Beer-Sheva where she serves as curator and a member of the board; and in deep appreciation of a “Worthy Citizen of Beer-Sheva,” a long-time committee member of the Friends of the Negev Museum and one of the founders of the Joe Alon Center – The Museum of Bedouin Culture, and her contribution to promoting culture and the arts in Israel in general and the Negev in particular.
