The Senate and the Executive Committee of Ben-Gurion University of the Negev hereby resolve to honor Prof. Cary Nelson in tribute to an erudite and visionary man of letters, for his uncompromising dedication to advancing American higher education and to defending academic freedom everywhere; with deep respect for a prolific and original literary scholar of the culture and theory of the Left, who has expanded and democratized the canon of modern American poetry; to an exemplary academician, for his long service as president of the American Association of University Professors and as an advisor to colleagues in Israel and the United States; with admiration for a leader and humanist, who has devoted his intellect, energy, experience and time to highlighting and righting injustices in higher education and fostering unfettered free dialogue among researchers worldwide; with profound gratitude to a staunch friend of Israel, for his indomitable opposition to academic boycotts, especially of Israel, and for his unflagging efforts to illuminate the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in a fair and balanced manner; and with sincere appreciation for his efforts to promote openness, tolerance and cooperation, to make the world a better place for all people, by conferring upon him the degree of Doctor Philosophiae Honoris Causa with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.

Prof. Cary Nelson

In tribute to an erudite and visionary man of letters, for his uncompromising dedication to advancing American higher education and to defending academic freedom everywhere; with deep respect for a prolific and original literary scholar of the culture and theory of the Left, who has expanded and democratized the canon of modern American poetry; to an exemplary academician, for his long service as president of the American Association of University Professors and as an advisor to colleagues in Israel and the United States; with admiration for a leader and humanist, who has devoted his intellect, energy, experience and time to highlighting and righting injustices in higher education and fostering unfettered free dialogue among researchers worldwide; with profound gratitude to a staunch friend of Israel, for his indomitable opposition to academic boycotts, especially of Israel, and for his unflagging efforts to illuminate the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in a fair and balanced manner; and with sincere appreciation for his efforts to promote openness, tolerance and cooperation, to make the world a better place for all people, by conferring upon him the degree of Doctor Philosophiae Honoris Causa with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.