

Sustainable Agricultural Solutions

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER COURSE:

JUNE 30 – AUGUST 04, 2022
SEDE BOKER CAMPUS, ISRAEL

BIDR
The Jacob Blaustein
Institutes for Desert Research

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The course will provide students access to cutting-edge knowledge and technologies related to agricultural practices. The course is built with the integrated academic perspective of improving food and water use worldwide, in face of global climate changes.

The course offers the opportunity to explore a combination of both basic and applied research in agricultural and environmental topics during frontal lessons, practical aspects of the topics and integration between them. The course is composed of three tracks: soil and irrigation; plants under abiotic stress; and aquaculture.

The combination of field and laboratory work will provide hands-on experiences that will be presented by the students in a concluding seminar.

The program includes cultural events during which students will have the opportunity to socialize with local students and weekly tours to discover Israeli culture and history.

TUITION:

Course Tuition is USD 2,000 including transportation, accommodation, travels, studies and food (Chinese and Indian students may apply for a scholarship - whereby a non refundable $300 tuition cost will be paid by the participant).

ACCOMMODATIONS:

The BIDR program will provide meals and high-quality accommodations (with kitchenettes and bathrooms) upon a $200 returnable deposit.
