

Center for the Study of Conversion and Inter-Religious Encounters

Annual Theme: "Rethinking Center and Periphery in the Abrahamic Religions"

Fall Semester Seminars Program

- 26.10.21 Prof. Daniella Talmon-Heller, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev
Greetings and Introduction
Prof. Yoram Bilu, Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Center and Periphery in Messianic Chabad
- 9.11.21 Dr. Gil Fishhof, University of Haifa
The Historiography of Crusader Art in the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem (1099-1187): Concepts of Center and Periphery as an Ideologically Biased Framework
* The meeting will be delivered via zoom
- 23.11.21 Prof. Nimrod Hurvitz, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev
Is There a Center? The Hanbalite Ethos of Religious Criticism in Medieval Baghdad
- 7.12.21 Dr. Jill Hicks-Keeton, University of Oklahoma
Rehabilitating Vashti in Feminist Biblical Criticism
* The meeting will be delivered in English and via zoom
- 21.12.21 Ms. Michal Erlich, Tel Aviv University
From Hyper to Local Gurus: Establishing Authority and Sanctity in Guru-Bhakti Communities in the Peripheries of Delhi
- 4.1.22 Dr. Yaniv Fox, Bar-Ilan University
Between Town and Country: Center and Periphery in Early Medieval Saints' Lives

Seminar meetings will be held in Hebrew, once in two weeks, on Tuesdays 12: 15–13: 45, unless stated otherwise. For further details: yuvalgivon@gmail.com | oramir123@gmail.com

In addition, every other week the center's fellows will hold a reading group (same room and hours).

For details: rayaED@bgu.ac.il