

Dr. Galla Salganik-Shoshan

Galla Salganik-Shoshan is an Senior Lecturer in Finance at the department of business administration of the Guilford Glazer Faculty of Business and Management. Her research interests include investment funds, investor behavioral, corporate finance and FinTech.

Galla received BA in Health System Management (2001) and MBA in Finance (2005) from Ben Gurion University, M.Sc in Finance (2007) and Ph.D in Finance (2010) from Tilburg University.

Galla worked as a financial-risk consultant in a private consulting company, served as a research fellow in Koret Israel Economic Development Funds and as an administrative manager of Alternative Medicine Clinic in Clalit Health Services.