

DEMO – Developing Modernized Curricula on Immigrants’ Lives in Israel
October 2017 – October 2020

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

DEMO is conceived to increase the awareness and knowledge about migrants' life experiences among applied social professionals (teachers, social workers, counselors and others) so that they can provide this population with better-attuned services.

DEMO proposes to achieve this aim by developing, implementing and disseminating innovative courses on the lives of migrants in Higher Education Institutions.

Summary as is now

Preparation and development phases had been completed.

Eight courses on migrants' lives will be taught in the coming academic year, starting October 2018 in participating institutions in Israel. By the end of the academic year, they will be evaluated and prepared for dissemination.

Consortium Partners

Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Israel (coordinator)
Bezalel Academy of Arts and Design, Israel
Goetenborgs Universitet, Gothenburg, Sweden
Gordon Academic College, Israel
Panepistimio Thessalias, Volos, Greece
Ruppin Academic Center, Israel
Sakhnin College, Israel
Stiftung Universitat Hildesheim, Hildesheim, Germany
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel
Vilniaus Universitetas, Kaunas, Lithuania
Universitat Trier, Trier, Germany

<http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/projects/eplus-project-details/#project/cb4f9627-3208-4362-888e-f9c6e19d28bf>