This course continues where Introduction to the Lexicon leaves off, exploring in greater depth issues relating to the lexicon-syntax interface.

Requirements and grading:

There are regular assigned readings, posted on Moodle.

Students are expected to read the articles, bring questions and comments to class, and participate in class discussions.

Attendance is therefore required.

Participation & Assignments = 25%

Final assignment = 75%

The final assignment can take one of two forms:

(1) A 2-page answer to set questions.

(2) A short paper on a relevant topic with data from your own language: data, description, observation. (WITH APPROVAL ONLY.)
