The basics of brain and language (broca's area, broca's aphasia, wernicke's area, wernicke's aphasia, linguistics whole items and features, the N400 and the P600), and how the brain contributes to syntactic, semantic, phonetic, and phonological behavior.

Another prominent goal of the course is to train the students in the reading of short brain and language papers.

Course requirements and grading:

- Attendance: 0 % Obligatory
- Mid-term: 0 %
- Papers: 0 %
- Presentation: 50 %
- Final paper: 50 %

