- ➤ June 1, 2017 – Publication of the academic program
- ➤ June 15, 2017 – Online registration deadline

✔ The academic program will include tracks from all the POMS Colleges:

- ➤ Behavior in Operations Management
- ➤ Healthcare Operations Management
- ➤ Humanitarian Operations and Crisis Management
- ➤ Product Innovation and Technology Management
- ➤ Service Operations
- ➤ Supply Chain Management
- ➤ Sustainable Operations

In addition, a general track will be added to accommodate relevant papers that do not naturally fit into one of the Colleges.

- A reception on the evening of June 27
- A main conference dinner on June 28
- Conference closing event on June 29
- Optional tour of Jerusalem including visits to Israel's Parliament and historical sites
- Optional tour of Israel's high tech sector

Those wishing to present a talk at the conference should send an email to

POMS.Israel@gmail.com

Please include a title, abstract, name of presenting author, list of authors and a suggestion as to which track the paper should be assigned. We strongly encourage you to use the submission template that can be found on the conference website. Titles are limited to 15 words. Abstracts are limited to 50 words and should be continuous text (no bullet points and no math/Greek symbols). The submission should include information about all co-authors including full name, organization and contact email. Each conference participant can present at most one paper.

To be included in the conference, presenters must register before the early registration deadline.
