

Directions to the Marcus Family Campus

By train

- ▶ Take the train south to Beer-Sheva from one of the stations in Tel-Aviv or from further north. You should get off the train at “Beer-Sheva North/University” station. At the exit to the station turn right onto the “Mexico Bridge” which leads to the Marcus Family Campus. (For directions on campus see map below). The train journey takes about 1 hour and 20 minutes.
- ▶ Note: from Jerusalem you should take the train to Tel-Aviv and then follow the directions above.
- ▶ For the train schedule, visit Israel Railways website:
<http://www.rail.co.il/EN/Pages/HomePage.aspx>

By car

- ▶ Parking note: If you are arriving to the Marcus Family Campus by private car please contact your visit coordinator to arrange for permission for you to enter campus with your car and park. The permit can only be arranged once you have rented the car because, in addition to the name and telephone number of the driver, you’ll need to provide the license plate number, car type, and car color.

► From Tel-Aviv (no toll route):

- On the Ayalon Highway (Route #20), stay in the left lane.
- When you see a sign for "Holon/Bat Yam" keep going straight.
- Eventually you will find yourself on Highway #4 to Ashdod.
- When you see the exit for Ashdod, proceed one more exit, which will be for Beer-Sheva. It comes almost immediately after the Ashdod exit. This takes you to Highway #41.
- Follow the signs to Beer-Sheva until you get to a T-junction (Gadera) where you turn right onto Highway #40.
- Take Highway #40 all the way to Beer-Sheva. The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction.
- Continue on straight, and at the 5th traffic light (they are numbered) turn left into the University. This is the University Gate.
- After you pass through the gate/security check, turn right into the large parking lot and then immediately left towards the farthest building - the Samuel & Milada Ayrton University Center, an off-white building (see map for directions inside the campus).
- The journey should take about 1 hour 30 minutes, depending on the traffic.

► From Tel-Aviv (via Road 6, a toll road):

- On the Ayalon Highway (Route #20), take the exit to Jerusalem (Route #1).
- After 20 kilometers (12 ½ miles), at “Ben-Shemen” interchange, Route #1 and Route #6 unite (all the way to Daniel interchange).
- At Daniel interchange take Route #6. Go straight for another 52 miles all the way to Beer-Sheva (the toll Route (#6) is free from the Sorek Interchange southwards). The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction.
- Continue on straight, and at the 5th traffic light (they are numbered) turn left into the University. This is the University Gate.
- After you pass through the gate/security check, turn right into the large parking lot and then immediately left towards the farthest building - the Samuel & Milada Ayrton University Center, an off-white building (see map for directions inside the campus).

► From Jerusalem:

- Take Route #1 to “Ben-Shemen” interchange, where Route #1 and Route #6 unite (all the way to Daniel interchange).
- On Daniel interchange take Route #6. Go straight for another 52 miles all the way to Beer-Sheva (the toll Route (#6) is free from the Sorek Interchange southwards). The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction.
- Continue on straight, and at the 5th traffic light (they are numbered) turn left into the University. This is the University Gate. After you pass through the gate/security check, turn right into the large parking lot and then immediately left towards the farthest building - the Samuel & Milada Ayrton University Center, an off-white building (see map for directions inside the campus).