

Research Seminar 206-24321 – 1 credits

Prof. Chaim Benjamini

Syllabus

Required for all Msc students in their second semester of studies. The student will present background on thesis project, program for the research, and timetable for successful completion. The seminar will be submitted in written form for review and will be presented orally before the members of department and research students in the second semester of studies.

Course Requirements

Writing a research proposal and presenting it to department members during the second semester of MSc studies.

Grading

"pass \ fail". A "pass" is required for continuation of studies.