

ISEF ALUMNI – LEADERS AND CHANGE-MAKERS

ISEF's transformative impact on gifted young Israelis from marginalized communities creates positive change from the Galilee to the Negev!

Prof. Ronni Gamzu

Tel Aviv University

National Coronavirus Czar, 2020

Former Director-General, Israel Ministry of Health

CEO, Tel Aviv Sourasky Medical Center

Prof. Yifat Bitton

President, Achva College of the Negev

Champion of women's rights
Short-listed twice for Israel's High Court

Bank of Israel Council member

Prof. Meir Buzaglo

The Hebrew University

Chosen to light 65th Independence Day torch

Reformer, Math education

Member, National Commission for Equality in Israel's Schools

Leader, Sephardic cultural revival

Dr. Yonatan Reuven

Senior ENT specialist, Schneider Children's Medical Center (featured on "The Residents" TV series)

Captain (Res.), elite IDF reconnaissance unit

Groundbreaking research into Ethiopian community health

Prof. Osnat Akirav

Addressed UN

Commission on Status of Women

Mentors young women to run for office

Served 10 years on her city council

Mother of 4 boys

Prof. Miriam Bitton

Bar-Ilan University

Reforming Israeli patent law

European Union Marie Curie Grant (€100,000)

Zeev Zeltner Prize for Israel's top young legal scholar

Prof. David Levi Faur

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Governance Expert

Political scientist and author of over 70 papers, editor of the authoritative Oxford Handbook of Governance, and a founding editor of the Regulation and Governance journal

Prof. Yossi Yonah

Ben Gurion University

Knesset Member, Labor party 2015-2019

Academic, Social Activist, Author
Top advisor to Israel's social justice protest movements

One of the leaders of the Geneva Initiative

