

(3 credits)

001-2-2021

Weekly Lecture Hours	Exercise	Laboratory	Field Trip
3

Prerequisite: An introductory course in aquaculture; Background in microbiology and physiology.

The course will include general aspect in health maintenance in aquaculture.

Common diseases of fish that are caused by parasites, bacteria and viruses will be covered.

In the laboratory (1 credits), the methods used for the identification of parasitic, bacterial and viral (by PCR) diseases will be practiced.

Lecturer: Dina Zilberg

Recommended Reading: Provided during the course.