

The Center for the Study of Conversion and Inter-Religious Encounters (CSOC)

in the Ben-Gurion University of the Negev (BGU) invites you to a

PhD Candidates' Workshop:

Tuesday 31st May 2022

12:15-13:45

Diller Building #74,
Room #326

(Hertzog Center's Conference Room)

Chair: Michal Shalit Kollender, BGU's CSOC and Arts Department

- \\ Simon Mallas, "Depiction and Interpretations of War in Early Modern Travelogues on the Ottoman Empire", PhD student at Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz
- \\ Michael Rapp, "The Language of Peace? – Metaphors of War in the Writings of Tertullian", PhD student at Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz
- \\ Monir Morad, "Between the Visible and Hidden: The Monotheistic Religions in the eyes of the Druze Doctrine", PhD student at BGU's General History Department
- \\ Benyamin Storchan, "Byzantine Pilgrimage Centers of the Holy Land During the Early Islamic Period: Transition and Continuity", PhD student at BGU's Department of Bible, Archaeology and Ancient Near Eastern Studies

אוניברסיטת בן-גוריון בנגב
Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

Number of places limited,
to register for the seminar contact
rayaed@bgu.ac.il