

PROF. DAFNA SCHWARTZ

Dafna Schwartz (Economist) is the head of the MBA track in Entrepreneurship and Hi-Tech Management at the Department of Business Administration. She is also director of the Bengis Center for Entrepreneurship & Hi-Tech Management, Guilford Glazer Faculty of Business and Management. Her specialization areas are: Entrepreneurship, Economic and Business Development, High-Tech Industry, Start-ups, SME's and Regional and Local Economic Development.

She is an economic consultant in Israel and abroad (including projects and committees of the EU and other international institutions), with experience as a board member for many leading Israeli corporations. Currently, she serves as a member of the boards of: Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd., Strauss Group Ltd. and Bank Hapoalim (and previously of the Oil Refineries Ltd., Rotem Industries Ltd., Al-Bad Massuot Yitzhak Ltd., Israel Discount Bank Ltd., The Israel Small and Medium Enterprises Authority and others).

Dafna is a member of the Israel National Council for Research and Development and of the EU Expert Group on "Policy Relevant Research on Entrepreneurship and SME's". She also takes part in the European Commission as the Enterprise and Industry Director General. In addition, Dafna is a Member of the Committee for the Prime Minister's Prize for Entrepreneurship and Innovation.

She was nominated as one of the 100 most influential people of Israel's economy in the year 2011 by the Israeli economic journal "TheMarker". Prof. Schwartz received a B.A. in Economics from Tel Aviv University in 1973, a M.Sc. in Agricultural Economics and Management from the Hebrew University in 1977 and a Ph.D. in Economics from the Hebrew University in 1990.

Prior to joining the University (1999), she was Director General of the Development Study Center, an independent and nongovernmental institution engaged in research and training activities related to economic and regional development in Israel and developing countries.